“ Being a Realtor in Mount Holly or over 40 years at Koury & Clement, I could always count on Lee for the correct information, guidance and advice. I had the privilege to represent him back in the 80's and mutual respect turned into a professional friendship. A true Gentle Man. Handshakes were our common bond ~ Rest In Peace, my friend.

“ Lee was more than a friend and a mentor. He gave his life to service.

He was always upbeat,, always encouraging to everyone. There was no one too high or too humble ... he treated everyone the same.

He loved his wife and his children... we often talked about them together. He shared what a great experience he had with his son, Mark, when they made a trip to Italy together.

He loved people genuinely... He served God with all his heart...

He is now with the Lord, where there is "no years"...(Ps 102:27) And he will leave behind "much fruit" (John 15:8)

It is not hard to say good things about Lee,,, because he was all good.

Blessings and prayers to the family... We love you!!

“ Paul and I first knew Lee during one of those 12 summers when he and his dear wife, Carol, volunteered for the summers at the SIL International, Mexico Branch workshop in Mitla, Oaxaca, Mexico. We later on visited two times in their peaceful and welcoming home in New Jersey. Lee--with Carol--impressed us so much for their managerial capabilities and willingness to step right in and help with so many different jobs that helped to keep this center that serves Wycliffe Bible Translators going and prospering.

We always enjoyed socializing with them also. Great, great people!! We know now where Lee is--in Heaven. And we pray for peace and rest and comfort for Carol and the rest of the family. Blessings, Claudia . . . and for Paul Griffith

“ Lee was a great friend to me. Many Friday mornings at the Linguistic Center in southern Mexico, we joined in prayer for the language group we serve there. He was always full of laughter and encouragement. He also gave us great professional help, for free, when we needed to build a house for our large family for those regular times we were not in the village. He was a true servant. I remember him as an encourager, an inspiration, and a man of God. Most of all, I miss him as a friend. His book, Letters to Madeline is a great work of heart that I was privileged to read.

May the Lord grant you great grace and comfort, Carol, and family.

“ My sincere condolences to Lee's family. I was fortunate to meet Lee back in the 70s and 80s when Alaimo worked closely with Cherry Hill Township. He was the consummate professional, but more importantly, Lee was a kind and gentle man ... a true gentleman.

“ Dear Talbot family:

I wish to convey my sincerest condolences to your entire family. Losing a loved one in death is one of the hardest things that anyone will ever have to deal with. There is a great hope held out to us for the future because God promises to bring those we lost back to life by means of a resurrection to a paradise earth, where sickness and death will be no more. I hope this brief message will bring you a measure of comfort in this difficult time.
