“ Dr. William Tasman and Alice Lea Tasman would like to extend their sincere condolences the Dr. Thomas R. Hedges, III and the Hedges family on the death of your mother.

“ I was saddened to read of the loss of your loved one. When we lose our loved one in death it is the most difficult time in our life. However, there is loving comfort in Psalms 55:22 to “throw your burden on God and he will sustain you..” Yes, no matter what we are facing God is there to help us get through it. May you continue to have the love and support from family and friends. I sincerely hope that this Bible message brings you a measure of comfort during this difficult time.

“ I am deeply sorry to hear of Ann's passing. She was a lively, sharp intelligence and I enjoyed getting to know through her writing and her involvement with our English Department at Rutgers-Camden. An avid reader, she had astute observations on many contemporary writers, and was always articulate and engaged. She was also just a decent, giving, and unpretentious person who was a pleasure to be around. My condolences to her family.

“ I'm so sorry to hear this news; she was a lovely person, and my parents were extremely fond of both her and her husband. Such a nice woman, I will always remember her smile.
