“ We are so sorry to hear of the passing of Charlie. Both he and Terry are so fondly remembered for all the fun times we had together. They were missed from the day they left Sarasota. Our deepest sympathy to all the family.

“ We will always treasure the memory of the many events and activities we shared with Charlie and Terry (Theresa). Charlie and I (Gary) always loved to talk about sports and his love of the the New England Patriots. He would often break away from a dinner or activity to check a nearby TV for the latest score. We went to plays, movies, classic housing and garden events, dinners and many other things over the years. We have missed them since they had to go to the north and we regret we could not have had even more time together in Sarasota.
