“ Mrs. Stelwag was a neighbor of my mothers, if I am not mistaken in Delran, she was lovely and walked with my mother. She could not have been warm or more gentle. When my father died unexpectedly, she was first to offer condolences. The shop they owned gave my mother great pleasure, smelling the many fragrant plants, candles. She is greatly missed. Dr. S

“ We would like to send our condolences to the Stellwag family on the loss of their mother. I just lost my 90 year old mother Rose Davenport, so it's very hard to let them go, but our faith in Jesus Our Savior will get you through it as he has with our family loss. You are all in our prayers at this very difficult time. May God bring you his Peace. Love Kathleen & Bob Robertson.

“ I Jason Smith lifelong family friend send my heartfelt sympathy to the entire Stellwag Family. Deeply saddened myself I pray that the Lord will comfort and guide them through this difficult time. She is now safely home resting in heaven, the most beautiful garden imaginable. I'm reflecting on all the pleasant memories of her over the years, from when I was a little boy to this past Christmas card she sent I'm looking at now comforts me. Thank You, Mrs. Stellwag. Love, Jason
