“ My condolences to the family of Genevieve Worrell.

Although she and I knew each other for just short of three years, I loved her as a friend and enjoyed her company. We shared a joy of working with yarn in knitted and crocheted items. We spent several weeks sitting together in her living room while she crocheted an afghan and I knitted seafarer hats. She was interested in how things were going with me and was very concerned when I was ill. Even in her last days she knew me and asked how I was feeling. I had the pleasure of cooking for her when she was at home.

I will miss Jenny.
