“ Mom, I miss you so much. You were so wonderful and cared so much about everyone. Everyday you showed me me the joy and strength of living. Even when you were so very sick and could barely talk you never complained and only asked about the family. And when you heard someone had broken her ankle you struggled to say we need to send her something. These memories are the kind of legacies you have left me to remember how much I want to try to be just like you. As much as I miss you I know Dad is now happy to have the love of his life back and I find comfort knowing that both of you are looking over the loving family you both created. All my Love, Mary Ellen
