“ Jack and I will miss our dear neighbor Bill. A generous man who gave so much of himself.
Remembering him contributing to many of our block parties. I will never forget his laughter. I would see him at “the wine cellar” when I would stop on my way home from the city. Later I would see him pull into his driveway.
We will miss him for sure. My heart is sad at his passing.

“ Bill and I recently reconnected after more than 60 years. It was great to do so and share photos and stories of our family. I regret we were not able to be in contact over the years. My thoughts and condolences to Jean and your children. Your cousin, “ Sherry & I send our deepest heartfelt sympathies to Jean & family on the loss of Bill. How well I remember the 1975 cooking class Bill led at the church. Buckeye Brunch & many other classics are now long time family favorites. Bill was an insightful observer of the world and a gracious advisor and host. The world lost a very good man.

May God bless and comfort Jean & family at this time of loss.

“ Bill was by far the best employer I have ever worked with. He not only taught me all about wine but taught me and gave me the courage to believe in myself. We worked together for over 20 years and was more than my boss...he was my good friend. He considered me as part of the family and Jean of course welcomed me with open arms. I was certainly blessed to be a part of his life. I will miss him dearly.

“ My husband and I would like to express our deepest sympathy to the family at this trying time. We have never met, but share family in that Christopher Habben is our son, hence we share grandchildren and pf course, Amy our daughter-in-law, whom we love. Our grandchildren seem to be carrying on the Hendrickson height and I am sure other attributes as well. Although we have never met, please know we encircle you in prayer and hope for comfort and peace. May great memories fill your hearts and minds always.

“ We are so comforted to know Bill is at peace. Throughout his life, he was always willing to give to others. Among other venues, Bill shared his extensive knowledge of the world of wine with a small group of friends on a regular basis. We struggled to take in his appreciation of the varietals he selected. Although he may have felt this was a case of casting pearls before swine, he never let on. We were blessed. Another pleasant memory was his 80th birthday celebration down at The Outer Banks- lots of laughter as always. His commitment to family and Community Serves as a goal for everyone. We love you, Jean, and family. Go in Peace,
