He was known for the skip in his step and twinkle in his eye, his meticulous habits, and his affectionate nature. He is survived by his “child bride”, Norina (Gregnol) Andreola, to whom he was married for 43 years, his 6 children, Albert Andreola (Linda), Marsha Andreola, Saskia Ishii (Clyde), Robert Andreola (Janet), Kathy Mullin (James), and Sue Moonan (Mike); 16 grandchildren (Ryan, Allison, and Jenna, Allison, Melody, Katie-Jo, Kimberly, and Christopher, Sarah, Daniel, and Amy, Lindsey, Lauren, Bridget, and Michael, and Jason); 8 great grandchildren (Ashley, Emily, Connor, Brynn, Leo, Lily, Tavi, and Nalu); his devoted niece and caregiver, Jacquelyn Symonds; and the Bailey Family, Dan, Jo Anne, Caroline and Alison, and their dog, Andy. “ I will always remember his generosity when my van broke down. When I went to pick it up at the Ford dealership in Thunder Bay my bill had been paid in full. Will always remember your heartfelt relationship with your sister ViVi. You will be missed just like your sister. You both have left an emptiness in so many hearts but have given us so many treasured memories over the years. Esther Horner, Thunder Bay

“ Uncle Bert such a stand up guy. I will always remember the day he took all the kiddies and their parents to The driving range with hands on instruction then playing 9 holes after an outing to Old Fort William lunch at MacDonalds with the kiddies then dinner at the Keg. I was exhausted. He was a tornado of energy. And yes that twinkle. I saw it. Till we meet again fine sir. Thanks for the memories. Taryn
