

Albert Brian Ellis

November 1, 2019

Albert Brian Ellis, of Moorestown/Mt Laurel . Born 03/27/37 Died 11/01/19
Born and raised in Moorestown, NJ, Brian served and retired from the US military. After enlisting in the Navy, he was assigned to, and became a plank owner of, the USS Saratoga (CVA-60). He later continued his service with the Naval Air and the US Coast Guard Reserves. Brian was also a retiree from Albert Ellis, Inc., where he devoted a lifetime of service to the community of Moorestown.

He had a zest for life with his hobbies over the years: boating, flying, golfing, fishing, tractor restoration, motorcycling, moonshining, and tinkering.

Whatever was broken, Brian could fix. Whatever idea Brian had imagined, he created. Inventions were his game.

Brian (and his shenanigans) will always be remembered and cherished by family and friends.

Survived by his wife, Carol "CJ" Ellis, daughter Wendy Ellis, son Christopher Ellis, daughter Merle Compton (Daniel), son William Ellis, Sister Dale Hocking (George) as well as numerous grandchildren, and great grandchildren.
