“ *To the family of Judge Alfred Faxon, my deepest condolences go out to you at this sorrowful time. I sat through a few court sessions in Medford and recently in Burlington Twp. when Alfred was on the bench. He was a good judge and will be missed.

“ *Al was a college classmate of mine at Trinity College and my roommate freshman year in 1959. He was a gracious guy who helped make my transition to college life easier by his humor and encouragement. I remember fondly a trip to his home in Moorestown to spend Thanksgiving, a visit that also included participation in the Army -Navy game with his father. My prayers go out to all of his family as they say their "good-byes".

“ JP - after working with you a short time, I gave you your nickname and before long the entire county was calling you JP. You were a very special man to me and many others. I will never forget all of my memories with you. My heart is very sad. I will always remember you with having a great sense of humor, that I enjoyed very much, and a great professionalism - Bud Light - that ceases to exist today. You will always be my "Judgie Poo".
