

Amy M Wallace

May 28, 2019

Amy Wallace of Moorestown, NJ passed away peacefully, surrounded by her family, on May 28th, 2019. She was 62.

Amy is the beloved wife of Scott, loving mother of Jamie and Danny, proud grandmother of Charlie, devoted daughter of Joan McKeon and her late father Jack, and loyal sister of Lucy, Tom, and her late brother John. She is also survived and cherished by her brothers and sisters in law, nieces and nephews, friends, and community members.

Amy was a lifelong resident of Moorestown, NJ. She graduated from Moorestown High School where she excelled at school and on the lacrosse and hockey fields. She went on to St. Lawrence University in Canton, NY, where she met her beloved husband, Scott. Amy felt truly at home at St. Lawrence, where she and Scott shared many happy memories. She went on to get an M.B.A. at George Washington University.

Those who know Scott and Amy cannot think of one of them without the other. They were a wonderful team who did everything together, and set a great example for their two sons.

Amy started out in the business world, but knew she was always meant to be a mother and became a stay-at-home Mom for Jamie and Danny. When her sons reached school age, Amy received her master's degree in education and became a kindergarten teacher in Lumberton, NJ where she would teach for 20 years.

Both Scott and Amy recently retired. Amy enjoyed playing golf, gardening, doing puzzles, and traveling with Scott. She was a devoted daughter and companion to her mother, Joan, visiting her frequently. Amy loved her grandson, Charlie and got immense pleasure from every moment spent with him. She especially loved reading books to him, sometimes for hours on end. Those who knew Amy will always remember her kindness, honesty, compassion, loyalty, and common sense. She and Scott were the glue that kept the Wallace and McKeon families close. Her families and her many friends will miss her dearly, but she truly lived a wonderful life.

A memorial service will be held on Monday June 3 at 1 PM at the Trinity Episcopal Church, 207 West Main St. in Moorestown NJ.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the John H. McKeon Jr. Scholarship Fund benefitting the Camden Scholars Program at Moorestown Friends School, 110 E. Main St. Moorestown NJ 08057

“ *Heard from Meg Friske that Amy was not well and of her passing from Carol Faught. Of course we join your army of loved ones in sending our sympathy. Good memories of our time together in Ben Avon and Pittsburgh ... of course we always had to include Amy's then favorite, Bonny Raitt. Good memories that can't be erased. All our love ... “ I taught with kindergarten with vAmy for 20 years and always admired her careful classroom organization and attention to detail. She loved each student for their individual needs and carefully met the needs of all her students . I am so sorry she didn't get to enjoy more time in retirement here on earth, but she will have no more sickness or pain as she has graduated to retirement in heaven , a much better place , we will miss her !!!

“ If Wikipedia had a definition for a "perfect kindergarten teacher", it would be Amy Wallace. She was kind, tender, patient and comforting to her young students and was able to get them to perform to the best of their abilities. My fondest memories are the "Mother's Day Teas" I attended for two of my children who were blessed to have her as their teacher. Thanks for the "forever" memories, you will be missed! My thoughts and prayers go out to your family and loved ones. Kay Jambor

“ So sorry to hear this. She was my son Eric's kindergarten teacher in 1997. I believe it was her first year teaching. I remember being impressed by her dedication and ability. May memories of her be a blessing to her family and friends.
