“ *Dear Phillip & Susan,
I am so sad to know today your son, Andrew, has passed, and I'm expressing to each of you my deepest condolences, and condolences from my children, too, Keith and Linda. Today, now, I am remembering our working together at Christ Church, Avon, Philip, for me it was always a learning day when we were together in the office, and I'm smiling to myself now, the day I thought I would help you, to clean and arrange your desk. Smile, Philip, and what a morning it was for me, Susan. And how kind you were, Philip, to support me when Mike died.
Peace and love to you and your family.

“ I am so very sorry for your great loss..the world is at a loss...I was a nurse with Andrew at Lourdes and I am devastated to hear about your heartbreak...Everyone loved working with Andrew and his patients appreciated being treated respectfully in addition to knowing they were receiving great care...May the warm embrace of family and friends help to ease your pain..Andrew: May you rest in peace..but not too much! I hope there is plenty of balls to the wall, adrenaline junkie fun for you...as you watch over us...

“ Andrew was a gift to our community and beyond. He gave so selfishly and tirelessly to each and every emergency he responded to. I had the pleasure of working with Drew on several in-town emergencies. His skill and sensitivity were second to none. I was sincerely lucky to have crossed his path and I will treasure these moments.

“ We are so sorry about losing Andrew. We saw him grow from an adorable child to a wonderful young man. It is obvious by his choices to be a nurse, EMT and firefighter he was a very giving person, eager to help those who were in a time of despair. We are certain he was a comfort to those people. He had a quiet strength about him and an infectious smile. Susan, Philip, Rachel, his sisters, nieces, nephew and all who loved him are in are prayers. May the many memories you have be a comfort. Our most heartfelt condolences.

“ HEY BUDDY, men im completeley in shock and griped in pain to know the only one so close to you, the most generous, hilarious and warm hearted person you ever came across at your job just passed away so soon. Buddy i remember that last night me and you worked at the ER with one of your crazy patients that made our nights more stressful. hahaha. can remember the random breaks you took to ease the tension he brought on both of us. I remember coming to your station were we crack jokes n shared a pack of pop corn with me. i took the pop thinking you said i can eat up everything, lol, but soon as you realised i had disapeard in your presence with the bag of pops, you came instantaneously looking for me. In your own words " i gave you to help yourself not to keep it" then we rubbeb shoulders and laughed about that silly talk just like we always do. Cant forget that pretty smile n face, that energy you brought not only to the ER unit here at LOURDES WILLINGBORO but to the the entire hospital. People loved to be around you Andrew, you were a very jovial and welcoming guy. You never had a bad day, even when you did, you coy smile ignites and covers the sadness and lights the building with hapiness. I remember you always telling me to smile even when im having a rough day. You may be gone too soon Andrew but you left lots of good memories to be rememberd. I PATRICE FROM ICP will always be that friend to keep these memories. I can write a whole novel about your excellence and great demenor. Im realy shocked when i got the news you passed away Andrew. im so devastated. so so devastated. R.i.p. UNTILL WE MEET IN HEAVEN.

Through the years we watched him mature into a compassionate, hard-working, dependable young man who devoted himself to emergency care for the community. “ There just aren't words to express how tragic this all seems. But I can only surmise from what I have read that God needed someone like Andrew in heaven right now. Sometimes there are people that are almost too good for this earth. I will pray that Andrew's soul was elevated for only the most righteous cause. I have been blessed to recently become a part of the Trinity family and Phillip and Susan have already had an incredibly positive impact on our tumultuous lives. I can only imagine how bright an individual and caring of a soul that Andrew must have been. Rest in peace and God Bless. (Andrew & Lisa)

“ Sweet Drew. I heard of your passing today and I am devastated. When I see your photograph I remember the gentle, caring seven year old soul who walked into my 2nd grade classroom at Roberts School. We walked our journey together...me as a novice teacher...you with so much hope and anticipation to learn the 2nd grade curriculum. Your Mom & Dad were so proud of you and I adored them as they adored you. As the years passed, your Mom & Dad would so proudly share your accomplishments and achievements with me. Your compassion for others and your passion for life showed in your choice to become a nurse and volunteer as a serviceman for Moorestown Fire Co. I grieve at the thought that we will not have the blessing to see your continued journey in achieving greatness. You were a wonderful boy and a wonderful young man. I will forever hold you in my heart and hold your dear family in my prayers. Rest in peace, sweet boy.

“ We are devastated to hear about Drew. Though I met him as he was getting ready for his 8th grade dance, my most recent memory of him was working in the ER the day my daughter was brought in for emergency appendectomy surgery several months ago. Drew recognized us and joked with Brianna to put her at ease, and helped me understand what our next steps were going to be regarding x-rays and treatment, and was just an overall blessing come our way that we desperately needed at that time. Though Drew was so young, he will never be forgotten. Prayers go out from us to Philip and Susan, and all of Drew's family, friends, loved ones, and fiance.

“ What a wonderful young man. His compassion was endless and he made everyone who had the pleasure to know him a better person. We all now have an angel looking out for us..
Rev. And Mrs Stowell..My heartfelt sympathy to you and your family who have been left to deal with Drew's passing. May you find comfort in knowing how many lives your son touched in such a positive manner that they will forever changed because of him.

“ Andrew was an awesome guy, so many nights working in the ER we would have some of the hardest patients and because Andrew was the awesome nurse that he was, he made magic happen, putting every single bit of heart he had into each patient. Of course as an EMT Andrew and I (as well as the rest of the EMT/Techs would have our "whacker" moments listening to the radio and seeing what was going on. He was awesome.
