“ I was lucky to be able to say goodbye to Anne the afternoon she died. Her life was long and surrounded by loving family. Her inquisitive mind and open heart best describe Anne and her love of Christ exemplified her as a person, Anne will be missed by all who knew her. She will always hold a warm spot in my heart. God Blessed her as she returned home.

“ My mother, Millie Jones, is a resident of CareOne and was a table-mate of Ann's for the last several months. Ann was such a kind and considerate friend! She advocated for my mother, who is visually impaired, by making sure that her food was cut and that she received what she ordered. In fact, she looked after all three of the ladies who were lucky enough to share her dining table. She kept the dining room conversation lively and was completely up-to-date with the current events. My mother is really missing her! As a regular visitor to CareOne, I also enjoyed my conversations with Ann. She always had a smile and a kind word for me, and she made sure that she saved her WSJ Sunday magazine for me to put in the waiting room of my office. Our sincere condolences to her family.
