“ Dear Katie and Cowan family, I am so sorry to hear of the passing of Anne. As her hair dresser of many years, I have countless memories of heartfelt conversations with her. There were so many life events, both joyful and sorrowful, that occurred in both our lives. She was a wonderful friend and I will never forget her. She was a strong, spiritual and positive lady and always spoke of her love for all of you. I wish you all comfort at this time of great loss. Peace and love, Sharon DeMayo

“ I remember bringing my daughter and her friend to Ocean City and visiting Anne who made us so welcome. My daughter always loved the shampoo she gave the girls to use after the beach! It is so amazing the things you remember. Both Anne and Bob had the gracious gift of hospitality and I am so glad that they were a part of my life .

“ So sad to hear of your moms passing. Anne was such a character. No matter what the circumstances she faced life with a positive attitude and her strong faith in God. I will always remember Anne walking with her golf hat around the streets of Wexford. Family was everything to Anne and I know she will be greatly missed. Our sympathies, Dean and Julie Hammond
