“ At the risk of becoming, once again, verklempt, I will attempt here to express my heartfelt love and sympathy to the long-extended Emerson/Streeter family over the loss of your matriarch. Standing before many of you at Skip's services, and without much thought about how I hadn't yet been able to catch up to her personally beforehand, I gazed right into her stare. It was too late to try to look off into the back of the room and pretend I was somewhere else. I was locked in. And in that moment I was instantly reminded of the dedicated life she had led. With wheel barrels full of will and strength, and truckloads of love, she created fertile ground for a family to live long and prosper -- and have a few laughs along the way. I am forever grateful to be a witness and a lifelong beneficiary. RIP "Mum" -- I'll miss the love.

“ Annette and I connected many years ago within the church. She and I loved working, studying, and praying with the women in Presbyterian women. She was a joy to be with. I can easily hear her distinctive voice as she laughed and shared thoughts. She was my friend. I loved her. Barbara Lewis

“ I will miss Annette very much. I cleaned for her for a number of years. She would always tell me to sit down and talk to her. She always wanted to know what was going on in my life. I loved talking to her. She was very caring and loving and made you feel at home and like family. I would always bring her books and she loved it. I was her own personal librarian. She would write her initials on the cover of the books so I would know which ones she had read already. I enjoyed seeing her every week and will miss her dearly.

“ As a kid, Mrs. Emo was my second mom, when her son Bill and I were back-and-forth between our houses on a daily basis. She was always so kind and made me feel like one of the family. And lots of great memories of our mom's piling our families in the car (before seat belt laws) for group day trips to Long Beach Island. Here's to a wonderful lady and my condolences to the family for your loss.

“ Annette was one of the most kind and loving person I have ever known. Even when she was sick, she would call and ask how you are. She always put others first, and exhibited Christ in everything she did. I learned so much from her and was blessed by her love and compassion. Annette will be terribly missed, but only until we meet in Heaven.
