

Arthur C McGuire

October 26, 2019

Arthur C. McGuire

Arthur C. McGuire, age 94, of Southampton, NJ, passed away on October 26, 2019.

Born in Boston, Mass., Mr. McGuire was raised in Collingswood, NJ and was a lifelong resident of South Jersey. He served his country in World War II in the U.S. Army Air Forces, stationed in England as a radio operator on B-17s and flying in more than 30 missions over Germany.

A Temple University graduate on the GI Bill, he had many jobs over his career, including high school teacher and insurance sales, completing his career working for the New Jersey Department of Labor.

Mr. McGuire lived for a number of years at the Jersey Shore and was an avid fisherman.

He is survived by a son, Curtis Crane, of Mount Laurel, NJ. He is predeceased by his parents, Arthur C. McGuire, and Louise M. McGuire (nee Norton), a sister, Mary Louise Silverman, and a niece, Gwenn L. Silverman.

Services and Interment will be private. Donations in his name can be made to the ASPCA (aspc.org) or your local animal shelter.

Tribute Wall

“ Arthur C McGuire

October 09, 2023 at 03:30 AM

“ Arthur C McGuire

November 08, 2022 at 08:26 PM

“ Helen Adams lit a candle in memory of Arthur C McGuire

Helen Adams - October 29, 2019 at 09:51 AM

“ Beloved and dear friend may you Rest in Peace with the angels. You were loved and admired by so many for your brilliant mind and charitable ways. I will miss you always.

Helen

Helen Adams - October 29, 2019 at 09:51 AM