“ Thank you Asa for all the love you shared with the poor children of the Mico Quemado Mountains in Honduras for so many years. Because of your help many were able to attend school past the 6th grade at the Bless the Children - John Grove High School. I know John would've appreciated all your help to keep the dream of education alive in the mountains. I'm so sad you are gone. We send you all our love and sincere appreciation for all the good you put into this world. God bless you.
