

Barbara C Ross

March 4, 2017

BARBARA C ROSS died at Samaritan Hospice on March 4, 2017 at the age of 82. She loved her family dearly. She was the widow of Richard D. Ross, She is survived by her daughter, Alison Judah (Richard Cardona); sisters Margaret Hunter and Claire Cowen; nieces Elizabeth Hunter, Laura Hunter Dietz, Meg Hunter Crissman, and Catherine Eagley; Nephew Thomas Hunter; Great-nieces Amelia, Olivia, Julia, Claudia, Jessica, and Reagan; Great Nephews Luke and Patrick, as well as step-daughter Patricia Ross and step-sons Laurent Ross, his wife Mercedes and their children Tadina and Mabelle, and Bruce Ross.

Barbara was born in New York City and was the oldest of three sisters. Graduating from Barnard College, her first job was with IBM in Manhattan.

Barbara moved to California with her first husband, Van Judah. They lived in Portola Valley, California for a number of years in the 1960's and early 1970's just before the area became known as Silicon Valley.

She returned to the East Coast in 1975. Barbara married Richard Ross in 1982. Later in her career, she founded and ran multiple businesses in environmental engineering with her late husband, Richard Ross.

Barbara was an active volunteer at St. Matthew's Church which included many years of knitting hats for premature babies. She loved music, art and poetry. She traveled considerably throughout her life and always prepared for her travels with extensive research.

A funeral service will be held on Friday, March 10, at 11 am at St. Mathews Lutheran Church, 318 Chester Ave, Moorestown, NJ 08057. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations to be made to Samaritan Hospice at 5 Eves Drive, Suite 300, Marlton, NJ 08053.

“ Dear Allison and family,

Barbara was a wonderful and it was always a pleasure to see her and share a good laugh with her. She was an incredible person and will be missed deeply. "Death is not extinguishing the Light. It is putting out the Lamp because the Dawn has come". My you hold onto wonderful memories and my deepest and most sincere thoughts go out to all of you. Bill Butler

*Dear Alison,
Your Mom will be sorely missed. She was such a thoughtful, witty and loving woman who was a joy to be around. We will forever cherish the time we shared with her.

*Dear Allison
Barbara was an amazing office manager during her stay at our Four Nines business. She helped us in many ways saving our (including Dick et all) time for more detailed work. We missed her after RMT took over. She continued to do a lot of our office management with 36 Inc (Dick, Rich and I).
I am sure you will miss her. She always spoke very highly of you and Richard. I am very sorry that I was unable to attend the services on Friday. I asked Rich to extend my condolences to you, Richard and the Ross family.
