“ On Friday, July 6, there was the most beautiful sunset I have ever seen. Upon learning that Barbara had passed away that day, I thought, “That makes sense now...God was welcoming Home one of His sweetest, kindest, most loving and thoughtful people He created, and Connie must have been so happy to be reunited with his Love.”

Our paths crossed throughout our lives, as children, young adults with Connie, and as mature women. And each time, her warm and loving nature grew. An example: one year, Barbara went on a trip (to visit Kathy, I think) and brought back a map of the US and Canada showing where all of Native American Tribes were originally located. She did this because she knew that the “religion “ of the Native American was my religion. I immediately framed it, and it sits in a prominent place in my home. How more thoughtful and loving could a person be?

*I will miss Barbara dearly, but will always smile when I think of our long “girl chats” during our lunches together (and yes, Stephanie and Christopher, when she would brag about your latest adventures and achievements!, and also fill me in on how Michael, Kathy and Joanie were doing, by the way, Joanie, Barbara gave each of us one of the Journals you designed one Christmas - they were beautiful!), the very creative and delicious desserts she brought to the “Girls Christmas Get-Together “ (e.g., Santa Hats made with cheesecake topped with a Stand-up strawberry or reindeer made with a brownie and pretzel ears!!!), and, of course, whenever I look at my Native American map!
