“ I was sorry to hear of Buddy's passing. I knew him from high school (his sister, Kathy and I graduated together) and played with him on the Bums. Those were fun times. He was a really nice guy, gentle soul. Kathy, my sympathies to you and your sister. RIP, Buddy.

“ Dear Buddy, I missed you today. I walked the Cemetery but I missed that, too. I just want to say that you were a great friend. Not just a good one, but a great one! I love(d) you and so did all of my brothers, and my sister, Kate. We all did. So did my Mother and Father! You were a brother to us and a son to my folks. I especially love you for being such a good friend to my one brother, when I could not. You never gave up on him. Thank you so much for that. I am hoping that St. Peter has a Saxophone ready for you, as you enter God's realm. I am sure my sister and her band of Angels have a couple of tunes that could USE a good Sax player! What I will remember most is your laugh and your ease of laughing. I always took note of your ease of laughing at yourself, and how you opened the door for me to laugh at myself, too. We could laugh WITH each other! And, boy, we both had LOTS of opportunities for that! That is just one of the many gifts you gave to all of us, during your lifetime. Thank you, my friend, and know that I - and all my brothers - will be thinking of you. Your friend, Clete

“ The night Bud and I met we got into a fist fight. However, fate intervened before a punch was ever thrown and we became friends from that day on. Bud joined my softball team, became an All Star and singled in the winning run clinching our first championship 🏆. Farewell friend! PS: I would have whooped ya! Bill Battaglia.
