

Bonnie Bagamary

June 16, 2025

Bonnie Bagamary, 80, passed away peacefully on June 16, 2025, in Moorestown, New Jersey. Born on November 7, 1944, Bonnie lived a full and vibrant life marked by deep faith, cherished family connections, and a joyful embrace of life's simple pleasures.

A devoted Catholic throughout her life, Bonnie's faith was a cornerstone of her identity. Her unwavering belief provided her with strength and comfort through all seasons of life. She remained steadfast in her devotion to the Church and found solace in its teachings and traditions.

Bonnie was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Frank Vigliotti. Their bond was one of enduring love and companionship. She was also predeceased by her siblings Marlene Christiano and Richard Bagamary.

She is lovingly remembered by her children: Dawn and Matt Ninnemann; Greg and Simone Graboskie; Pamela and Glenn Sawyer; and Darren and Alexis Graboskie. Bonnie's legacy continues through her grandchildren: Devan and Brad Medford; Kaila and Kris Bolleter; Amanda and Cody Holt; Hunter and Rachel Sawyer; Buddy Sawyer; Tonya Sawyer and John Chilla. Her great-grandchildren—Oliver, Oakley, and Emmy Bolleter; Sophie and Reign Holt; Ainsley Medford; Dean Sawyer; Rowan and Jace Chilla—were a source of immense pride and joy. She is also survived by her brother Alex Bagamary and his wife Pat.

Bonnie was a woman who delighted in the small wonders of the world around her. She had a fondness for wine, books, cats, penguins, and whimsical gnomes—each reflecting a different facet of her spirited personality. Warm weather brought her peace, often accompanied by a quiet moment with a cigarette. She also loved playing games like Farkle, Canasta, Buno, and Rummikub, always bringing a bit of competitive fun and laughter to family and friend gatherings. These simple rituals were part of what made Bonnie so uniquely herself.

Her presence will be deeply missed by those who knew her—a woman whose warmth, humor, and authenticity left an indelible mark on all who crossed her path. May her memory bring comfort to those who loved her.

“ Well mom you didn't fake us out this time. I'm sorry you didn't live another 20 years like you wanted but I know you'll always live within our hearts and won't ever be too far.

The memories, laughter and love we shared are endless I'm my heart, mind and pictures to show, that I'll never forget.

There really aren't words for the hurt that's in my heart right now but I know in time our memories will help me smile more.

You are one of a kind from always cutting people off when talking, telling the same stories and repeat what others said to make it your story. 🗣️ There are so many things you did that well we just won't ever forget and will laugh when we think of them.

Your strength alone is a story we will now all repeat and hope we have just a bit of that if ever we are in the time of need. You never complained of anything which is something that didn't bleed in me lol but that also will be a repeated story for us now too.

Today we will celebrate you as you deserve this day and I hope you will be with us to see how very loved you still are. I hope your eternal life is full of everything you couldn't do anymore and you are surrounded by everyone you've missed and love. 🤔 I'll miss you forever mom ❤️👍🥰🥰

“ Bonnie and I started our beautiful journey after meeting on our first day at McFaul & Lyons.

Our friendship was a like a quilt of so many beautiful patches of memories, friendship, love, hugs, tears, heartbreaks, laughter, joy, being silly, playing games...Farkle, travel, support and sharing stories to mention a few. Our phone conversation would be for hours which seemed liked minutes. When it came time to end it always took three goodbyes before we would actually hang up.

On the maiden trip to my condo in Delray Beach Florida Bonnie volunteered to join me. What a journey that was. We didn't have an inch to spare in my SUV. Bonnie could hardly recline her seat and prayers were said for no flat tires. We stopped at every exit from MD to Florida that listed Zoo or baby alligators.

My retirement party was celebrated at a winery in PA. That required a train and a short school bus ride. Bonnie shared that was the first time she had ever rode in a school bus. Image the first time you ride a school bus and you're drinking wine lol. Only Bonnie!

So many wonderful memories. Bonnie you were truly one of a kind. I'll hold onto those forever in my heart. I love you and miss you. Until we meet again. Deborah
