

Cecelia Drago

February 10, 2019

Cecil" (nee Chorman) Drago, passed away February 10 at Lutheran Crossings, Moorestown, NJ. She was 93. Cecil was born in Duquesne, PA, on April 13, in 1925. She was the daughter of Anna and Paul Chorman. She and her husband, William, were original residents of Levittown, PA, moving there in 1954 for William's job with the new US Steel plant in Morrisville. They were members of St. Michael the Archangel Church in Levittown, PA. She resided in Levittown for 60 years before moving to Moorestown, NJ in 2014.

Cecil worked for a few years at Pomeroy's in the Levittown Shopping Center. Later, she was also employed for many years by the Bucks County Courier Times in the advertising department.

Cecil loved the beach and gardening. She also loved to travel, always looking for something new to see and experience. Once her husband retired, they crisscrossed the country by bus, enjoying the national parks and other sites.

Cecil is survived by her children, William D., Denise Boal (Pete) and Martin (Maryann); five grandchildren; Heather, Damien, Erin, Jennifer, Amy and 14 great grandchildren; Emme, Faith, Lydia, William, Eli, Brennan, Mercy, Ethan, Hope, Grace, Vivian, Dominic, Cynthia, Seely and Violet. Cecil is also survived by one sister, Elsie and many nieces and nephews. Cecil was preceded in death by William, her husband of 49 years, four sisters and two brothers.

The Drago family would like to thank all of the caregivers at Lutheran Crossings for their wonderful care.

Funeral services will be private.

In lieu of expressions of sympathy, the family requests memorial donations to Lutheran Crossings % Development Department, Lutheran Social Ministries of New Jersey, 3 Manhattan Drive, Burlington, NJ 08016
