“ Maria,

My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. I didn't know Barey well but the fews times I did meet him it was clear he was a good and caring man. While this is a very difficult time for you take some comfort in knowing that God has another angel. Many hugs.

“ When I learned of Barey's death, my thoughts traveled back to the days we all served together at Relief Engine Company. We were a Brotherhood, a Merry Band of Citizens who loved the Service and loved that we just happened to serve our community while we were about it. I can still see us as we sat in the basement lounge swapping stories, some of which were actually true!

So as in all Brotherhoods, time like a train moves forward and one by one we step off. This time it was Barey's turn. We will always remember him as we remember all of the Brotherhood and our thoughts and prayers will be with each one and their families.

*Much, Much Love and Peace
