

Claire J Call

May 14, 2019

Dr. Claire J. Call (nee McElhone) On May 14, 2019 age 98 longtime resident of Moorestown, NJ. Dr. McElhone Call was a Podiatrist who had her private practice in the home where she grew up in Gloucester City. She was a member of the American Society of Podiatric Medicine, and the Catholic Daughters of America.

Wife of the late Joseph G. Call Sr., Mother of Joseph Call Jr., Mary (Stephen) Emerson, Ann (Kent) MacDougall, Claire (Keith) Walters and the late Robert Aloysius Call.

Grandmother of Luke Emerson, Matthew Emerson, Daniel MacDougall, Claire MacDougall, Kelsey Sweeney, Carly Walters, Katie Call and Christine Call. In 2005, she was honored by the NJ Podiatric Medical Society for "60 years of dedicated and outstanding service to her patients, community and profession." She truly loved helping others and would make house calls for those who could not make it to her office.

Claire and her husband were avid supporters of their children's and grandchildren's athletics and activities and were always on the sideline cheering them on. She was a long-time supporter of the Moorestown Swim Club and Sunnybrook Swim Club where her family spent many great summers.

In addition, Claire was a diehard Philadelphia sports fan, especially her Eagles and Phillies. Claire will most be remembered for her faith, positive attitude, kindness and compassion for others.

“ I have so many memories of the Call Family. No doubt the one that stands out is on New Years night around 12:30am, Bob Stohner & I stopped by Mom & Dads to see Mr & Mrs Stohner & the Clines. Mom wouldn't let us leave until we ate something. A true Quakerooter and Eagles fan. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all . RIP Mrs. Call
