

Rev. Dallas Dorward

December 2, 2023

Dallas David Dorward, 94, passed away on December 2, 2023, in Burlington, NJ. He was born on May 30, 1929, in Reading, Pennsylvania. Dallas was a beloved pastor, loving husband, supportive and caring father, and adoring pop pop.

Dallas dedicated over 45 years of his life to serving as a Lutheran pastor to three congregations in Gloucester, NJ, Burlington, NJ, and Cherry Hill, NJ. His commitment to his faith and his congregations touched the lives of many.

Outside of his pastoral duties, Dallas had a passion for soccer, vegetable gardening, and golf. He was a player and coach; and a founder and president of the South Jersey Soccer League. His love for the sport brought joy to many in the community.

Dallas is survived by his wife, Anna Margaret Dorward, his sister, Anna Smith, three sons, eight grandchildren, and six great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents, Jonathan and Helen Dorward, his brothers, Craig and William Dorward, and his son Andy and daughter Peggy Sue.

A graveside service for family will be held to honor Dallas's life and legacy.

Dallas David Dorward will be remembered for his unwavering faith, his dedication to his congregations, family and community. May his soul rest in peace.

“ Dallas was a faithful friend. He served as pastor for my parents 50th wedding celebration. He married my daughter and son in law. He used our backyard garden for his own gardening when he had no place to grow his plants. Our dog loved watching Dallas putter in the garden. Such a nice man with a great sense of humor. He will be missed.
