“ Even in poor health, Uncle Dan made the 3 1/2 hour trip to my wedding last September. As he sat in the library, frail, tired, and hooked up to an oxygen tank, HE asked ME how I was doing and if I was happy. He knew of all that I had suffered throughout my life. Near the end of his, he thought about mine. That was just the kind of man Uncle Dan was. Once he was assured that I was content and happy, he ordered me to "get some damn heat in your mother's cottage." A month later he called to "light a fire under my ass" when he heard she still did not have adequate heat. Uncle Dan, we have put in a mini-split and will "skin" her cottage this Spring. Thank you for caring so much about your sister-in-law, for ALL of your sister-in-laws, and all your nieces and nephews. You will be dearly missed. We love you. Michele (Shelly) Rivera (Bach)

“ I have many happy childhood memories of spending several nights over at Uncle Dan's and Aunt Millie's in the summertime. I'm sure we kids were loud and crazy and drove him nuts, but he was always patient and kind to us. Not to mention all I learned about camping from him. Really going to miss him! Love you Uncle Dan!
