“ I was sorry to read about this today. Don was a boss who walked up with an aire of intimidation, but always walked away cracking a joke. Wishing you guys the best, take care.

“ *July 18
Happy Birthday Don.
Remembering many happy birthdays spent at the shore and trips from Avalon to Ocean City to celebrate. So many good memories growing up. You were my tormentor, my protector, my hero and friend. I have always been proud to call you my brother. Thinking of you on your special day. I'll love you always.

“ I was a teller at TD Bank for 6 years and Don was truly my favorite customer. He would bring in free food for the staff on a daily basis out of kindness and would always hang around for a personal conversation with me. Don would always ask me how college was going and where my aspirations were in the business world. Many tips and stories Don passed to me over the years I will never forget. I was deeply saddened to hear the news of his passing. Unfortunately I was traveling and was not able to attend the service but my thoughts and prayers are with his family and close friends.

*Rest in Peace Don,

“ I worked with Don at NTD in Cherry Hill, NJ. We had many good times together riding on accounts, sharing ideas and laughs. Being an avid Eagles fan Don and I often talked football and spent time Monday Morning quarterbacking. Don was the creative guy in our crew and always found ways to help his clients develop great advertising programs and showing the new sales people how to sell them.. Don moved out of the corporate world and his creativity, generosity and kindness served him well as an entrepreneur. Although we were miles apart, Don never forgot his friends. We kept in touch over the years. Linda and I stopped in at Ott's Tavern earlier this year and he made us feel right at home. He gave us each an Eagles/Ott's sweat shirt which I will wear with pride knowing they came from a dear friend that I truly admired and will miss.

“ I met Don in June 2010 – 5 years ago. He was constructing the outside deck – and was having the work completed after the bar closed at 2am. I lived behind Ott’s at the time and I wrote a letter complaining about the construction noise! He called me upon receiving that letter and brought me in to discuss my concerns in person. Little did I know – that initial meeting would be the beginning of my friendship with him & my employment at Ott’s!

Over the years – I’d come to enjoy Don’s stories (I always said that he should write a book!) He enjoyed bringing out old pictures from his office & showing them to me. I enjoyed our talks about politics (even though we definitely were NOT on the same page!). I loved how we were always in competition to be tanner than one another and I loved how when I would say “Hi Don” he’d always come back with “hello Va lar ee”! My children loved him and I’m grateful that the last time Hunter saw him – he gave Don a great big bear hug! I think he needed that.

Don was a very generous man. A giving man. An intelligent man. He was proud of what he had accomplished and he was proud of his family. He offered me the chance to work for him and because of that opportunity – I’ve made wonderful friendships with staff as well as customers. Thank you.

I will miss you very much. And, I will never forget you. Rest in Peace Don.

“ Too many to tell. Fishing on Don's and his father's boat in Avalon and eating the catch afterward. One time we put out a shark line after catching a bunch of snapping blues. I almost jumped into the ocean to relieve myself but the boys called me back. There was a very big thresher? shark just 50 yards off the boat playing with our bait. Needless to say I held it in until shore. Erik Williams
