“ It is often said that "You can choose your friends, but you cannot choose your family". My Uncle Don was, is, and always will be, a very dear friend that just happened to be my Uncle. Many people know of his heroic act that saved my Father from drowning in the icy Delaware River in 1939 that led to to dozens of people, so far, being able to exist in this blink of an eye that we call "earthly life". But my Uncle Don's life here is not merely defined by that one heroic day. It is defined by over 93 years of being a great man. It seems that we are losing many great souls here recently, but I am completely confident that my Uncle Don is now sitting at a firm spot at the table of eternal peace with my Father, my Mother,, and all of his special souls with Jesus Christ. Those souls are only "lost" to us on earth. Peace continues into perpetuity. From this point on, I will never think of Flag Day, a river, an Eddy Arnold song, or a beagle puppy and be able to contemplate and revere anyone other than only this man. I guess that what it all comes down to is that I am going to really miss my friend...until I see him again. As I used to try to sing with him "This is the Cattle Call". Thanks for everything pal.
