“ Dear Braxton family:

I wish to convey my sincerest condolences to your entire family. Losing a loved one in death is one of the hardest things that anyone will ever have to deal with. There is a great hope held out to us for the future because God promises to bring those we lost back to life by means of a resurrection to a paradise earth, where sickness and death will be no more. I hope this brief message will bring you a measure of comfort in this difficult time.

“ I sat in Donna's chair every month for 28 years. I saw her more than most of my family. We shared jokes, marriage stories, divorce stories, children stories especially the Joy when she became a Mom and a Grandmother and then prayed for her through her endless battle with cancer.

Those Saturdays were filled with laughter and some tears. She was an artist in her profession and turned customers into friends. There are no words to describe my sadness.

My sincere Sympathy to Gary and family.
