

Doris S Hansen

June 1, 2015

Hansen, Doris (nee Spiller) on June 1, 2015, age 89 of Marlton, NJ, formerly Emerson, NJ. Doris was the daughter of Harold and Florence Spiller and grew up in Chatham, NJ. She attended Cedar Crest College in Allentown, PA, and received her BS RN from New York Presbyterian Hospital (Columbia University) in New York City, where she was the valedictorian. She worked as a nurse caring for newborn babies, first at Hackensack Hospital and then at Pascack Valley Hospital in Westwood, NJ, retiring after 30 years. Doris was the wife of the late George E. Hansen, mother of Susan Hansen Mino and Carole Hansen Kraemer (husband Rick Kraemer), and grandmother of Christopher and Joseph Mino and Kelsey and Olivia Kraemer. An avid crossword puzzle solver, she had an incomparable love of animals, especially cats, and volunteered at multiple animal welfare organizations. Doris was a longstanding member of the Westwood United Methodist Church, whose caring women's group continued to support her after she moved to the Brightview Greentree community in Marlton in 2011.

Please join us in celebrating Doris's life and honoring her passing at a memorial luncheon on Friday, June 5 from 12:00 – 3:00 pm, with a brief service at 1:00 pm, at The Moorestown Field Club, 629 Chester Ave., Moorestown, NJ. “ Carole,
I have vivid memory's of both of your parents. The most carefree people in the world. Your mom was so thoughtful and caring. The turtles in the sink and than in the lake...
I remember one of the kindest things that will always be in my heart. It was my 19th birthday, things were tough at home. No sign all day of anyone even caring. Later that evening the doorbell rang. It was your mom with 2 dozen pink roses. At that moment I knew I was loved. You asked her to bring me flowers and she bought out the florist ;) My sincerest apologies for your sadness, Susan & Carole. She is somewhere very special in heaven. Love forever, Claire xoxox

“ It has been quite a few years since the Priddy family moved to Emerson, NJ. Being new to the area and not knowing really any one in town at all, Doris was one of the first people I met on the blacktop of Memorial School. She was kind, warm and reached out to me and my kids with open arms. Doris was easy to talk to and she had a special way about her that was extremely calming. Her words were always pleasant and reassuring. I do know that her grandchildren were super important to her and that she was very proud of them on a daily basis. Doris made it easier for me to join in and be accepted with her bits of wisdom and motherly wings. Many thanks to you, Doris, for giving me the push to make the first steps. I thank you. I wish you peace. My deepest sympathy to you, Sue and the family. God Bless, Denise Priddy & Family
