“ Doris,

I was just 19 when we first met as I came to the house next to yours with my dad to look at the house to possibly buy. You were very inquisitive about the young girl and man standing in the backyard looking at the house and came over to see what was going on. You had many questions about my situation and gave a lot of information about the neighborhood, but still seemed to be very skeptical about the young woman who might be moving in.... but what started out as you being very cautious, would later develop into a warm and caring friendship that would last over 30 years... You not only became a cherished family friend, but were a 2nd grandmother to my kids, who affectionately called you Dor-Dor for all the years they knew you. You were invited and came to every birthday, every anniversary, and every other party through all the years and you never ever missed sending a birthday card to myself and the kids... We used to joke that you owned stock in Hallmark! You were quick witted, feisty and never had a problem speaking your mind, and that's what I loved about you and why we got along so well.... I used to love the summer months when you would make homemade corn fritters and stroll into the backyard as I was weeding to catch up on our lives and what was happening in the neighborhood... You loved the lilac bushes in the backyard and couldn't wait for them to bloom every year. I cant remember an occasion when you weren't there and the new ones wont be the same without ... You adored Sally Ann and were a most devoted mother with your care and love towards her. I have many fond memories of you and Ernie Sr., and enjoyed his "needling" when he would kid with me or tell a joke....

You 2 were the best neighbors EVER and it wont be the same without you! I know you are reunited with Ernie, Sr and Sally Ann again and right where you want to be...

Love you, XO Heather
