“ I have many fond memories of times in your home with your parents. When we would perform in your living room. Your parents were always so happy & agreeable to view our silly childhood exhibits of "talent". It was lots of laughs.

Another special memory I have - one chilly summer day in your parents summer home at the NJ shores we were sitting there (probably bored - since we were teenagers) and your Mom brought in a full load of towels fresh out of the dryer (they were very warm). She piled those towels on us & asked us to fold them. But they felt so warm we just cuddled under them with her in the background saying " Did you folded those towels yet " ? She knew it was just what we needed.

I also just LOVED your Mom's Beef Stroganoff. Often your Mom would asked me to stay for that dinner and I'm sure I always said YES. Sure I ate more than my "alloted" amount but she never stopped filling up my plate. Whenever I make it or have it out somewhere, it brings back such fond happy times at your house.

Hold all your precious memories of your Mom in your heart as they were be a comfort at this difficult time. I pray that God's peace and love will also be a comfort to you.

Sincerely and with much love,

Sharon xxoo
