

Ebe Helm

February 2, 2024

Ebe Helm, 63, of Mt Laurel, NJ, passed away on February 2, 2024 after a short illness. He was born on April 23, 1960 in Philadelphia and was raised in South Jersey, graduating Lenape High School in 1979. He then attended Burlington County College, where he earned AS and AA degrees, and went on to spend most of his career working as a TV and video engineer, traveling to locations here and abroad.

While still in high school, Ebe built a functioning laser, which years later was displayed at The Smithsonian Institute in Washington, D.C., in their exhibit of home-made lasers. He was an avid supporter of the Battleship New Jersey when it came to Camden in 2001, and was responsible for designing and building a working TV station aboard the ship.

He is survived by a brother, Curtis Crane, of Mt. Laurel, NJ.

Services were private.

“ Judy Ballagny, Ebe was one of the nicest person you could ever meet. Ebe knew who he was and celebrated life on his terms. He would do anything for you. The community would see Ebe riding his bike, wearing a straw hat, around Mt. Laurel. Ebe was a member of Ramblewood Country Club for many years during the summer at the pool. He then joined Larchmont swim club when Ramblewood swimm pools were demolished. Ebe was an asset to all that knee. God take care of Ebe when he looks for you. You will see how wonderful our Ebe was. You were an Angel Ebe. You touched me several times at Larchmont Swim Club with your kindness. We all loved you and pray for you each day.

“ Ebe was a loved, respected member of our Ramblewood Village Community and will be sincerely missed. Ebe's day in and day out courage was an ongoing inspiration; more than a neighbor, I was proud to be Ebe's friend. I send heartfelt condolences to Curt and all who mourn the loss of Ebe.
