Edward J. Damm

Legendary Business Leader and Family Patriarch,

Edward J. Damm of Moorestown, Chairman of ACCU Staffing Services, one of the nation's leading independent staffing companies, died on June 18, 2021. He was 88. Ed was born in Jamaica Queens, NY on September 14, 1932.

Ed's career in the consumer-electronics industry began with RCA and spanned nearly three decades as he rose to prominence as a national sales manager for General Electric (GE).

In 1988, Ed took early retirement from corporate America to join his wife, Doris, in their fledgling Cherry Hill, NJ-based temp service. Under Ed's leadership, Accu Staffing Services grew to become one of the fastest-growing and most highly respected staffing firms in the country. The consummate storyteller, advisor, life-coach, mentor, and friend, Ed's words of wisdom have impacted the personal and professional lives of countless people. Ed was one of a kind and has left an indelible imprint on everyone who was fortunate enough to share his company.

Ed was a veteran of the United States Navy and a Freemason, initiated in 1958.

Ed was preceded by his wife of 57 years, Doris Damm. Dear father of William Damm, Edward H. (Laura) Damm, Elaine M. Damm. Loving grandfather of Lisa (Christopher) Burruezo, Michael Connor Sweeney and Erica Nicole Damm.
