“ I worked with Elaine at the Central Record for many years. Elaine always had a humorous take on any subject discussed. She was a lot of fun. I sorely missed her humor when I left to work at the BCT. She will be sorely missed.

“ Elaine, my friend and colleague at both the Courier-Post and The Central Record, was a dogged reporter and a facile writer, but what shone brightest for me and my wife, Carol, was Elaine's sparkling wit and her boundless sense of humor. Tears for her now but wonderful memories remain of the laughter we shared.

Elaine was my first friend when I moved to Merchantville in 5th grade. Unfortunately living in Texas for the last 25 years I did not see much of her. She provided a wonderful reception for my family when my father Dan Stephenson passed away in 1896. I will miss our phone conversations. Sandy Stephenson Merrell

Elaine was a spirited, energetic woman who I remember well from our high school days at Merchantville High. She was involved in many activities and played basketball, lacrosse, and hockey for which she was the co- captain. I always looked forward to seeing her at our reunions, which she attended enthusiastically. Her indomitable spirit will be greatly missed. Rest In Peace, old friend.
