“ I've known Elaine since 1961 when we both went to work at Camden Trust Company in Camden, our first jobs out of high school. Our boss was Earl Leroy Glatfelter, a real character. In 1964 Elaine and I, along with my little brother, went to Atlantic City to see the Beatles. What a night that was! in 1965 Elaine and I went to Williamsburg (the first time for both of us) in my new Mustang. In 1967 Elaine was my maid of honor. She was the sweetest person I ever knew and I'm glad to have had her in my life. I know she has received a glorious entrance into the presence of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. (Oh, and she loved tuna!)

“ I have known Elaine since 1961. We started working at Camden Trust Company in Camden, right out of high school. Our boss was Mr. Glatfelter (what a character!). In 1964, Elaine and I, along with my little brother, went to Atlantic City to see the Beatles. What a night that was. We went to Williamsburg (the first time for both of us) in my new 1965 Mustang, and in 1967 Elaine was my maid of honor. She was the sweetest person I have ever known, and I am so glad she was a part of my life. I know she is receiving a glorious reward from our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. (Oh, and she loved tuna!)

“ I will miss seeing Elaine's desk all decorated up with her Anna Lee figures for every season of the year. She made sure that the vault was not just a work place but a little bit of home. We will miss you very much.

“ In the late summer of 1946, I was taking my doll for a walk when a little girl walked up on the other side of Union Ave. We exchanged "hi's" and some small talk; we were only three years old. We told each other our names and asked each other if we wanted to be friends. After a little more chit-chat, we decided to go tell our mothers that we had a new friend. The both of us ran home. I can still remember that night at the dinner table telling my father that I had a new friend and her name was Elaine. Those simple words spoken by two little girls sealed a friendship that lasted all these years.

Enjoy heaven Elaine. Jesus has filled it with bunnies and butterflies for you.

I will love you forever, little friend. Judy

“ Aunt Elaine has always been a special part of our family. I will always remember how kind and generous she was. She has been involved in my life, my brother's and my cousin's, from the very beginning; involved in family gatherings and special celebrations. She was always there with her camera ready to document whatever important occasion was happening at the time. I will miss her presence but am so grateful that she was in my life and part of many great memories.

Love, Chrisi

“ This was a shock to me as I heard about my friend Elaine. I have known Elaine for 8 years and she became a good friend to me. She was the kindest woman I ever had the privilege to meet. I will never forget when Elaine, Janet and I took a roadtrip to Trenton to see Mort and on our way back we got lost and ended up in Philly. We (I mostly) were so scared but all we could do is laugh about it. I will miss her kindness, her silliness, her stubbornness, I will miss ELAINE!!!!!! Thank you for being in my life and making an impression on me.

I have such wonderful memories of Elaine from when I worked at ARI. She was such a sweet lady and she is one of my most pleasurable memories of ARI. Alice Farnsworth
