“ I met Rick both as a member of Medford Lodge 178, and in my capacity as a professional Christmas caroler for the Medford Dickens Festival where he appeared as Santa for the children in our community. Rick's guidance, knowledge (which he freely shared), and kindness will forever be an inspiration to me. I even purchased a bagpipe chanter so that I could learn and hopefully play with him in the Kilties one day, an opportunity which has now sadly left this place with his parting. He performed my favorite Masonic lecture during my degree ritual, a job he did so well that it encouraged and inspired me to learn it well enough to try and give the same great experience to future Masons. His memory will indeed be treasured forever, and his presence in our lodge and in the Medford community will be greatly missed. Travel well, brother.
