

George W Branson

October 11, 2021

George William Branson died peacefully in his sleep at his home on Monday, October 11th. George was ninety-five years old. A lifelong resident of Moorestown, he graduated from Moorestown High School in 1944. His first job was at Curtis Publishing Company in Philadelphia. In 1954 he was drafted into the Army where he served at Fort Bragg, North Carolina until 1956. He then worked as a mechanic at the Buick dealership in Moorestown before joining the U.S Postal Service. He worked at the Moorestown Post Office until his retirement in 1988.

George married Jeanne Hancock at the Moorestown Baptist Church in 1957 after meeting through a church pen pal program between choir members and church members serving in the military. They were married for over fifty years. George was without his dear wife for the past eight years, missing her every day.

George was an avid weightlifter. His garage full of weights was known affectionately as the Lenola Barbell club by his fellow lifters, who gathered there weekly for over half a century. He was also a ham radio operator. His handle was WB2DNU. George was a lifelong learner always hungry for knowledge about the world. His library of books is testament to this pursuit. Baseball and horse racing were his interests. He had an encyclopedic knowledge of the trials and triumphs of the Philadelphia Phillies from the 1930s to the present. And he was a frequent visitor to the Cherry Hill and Philadelphia racetracks.

George deeply loved his children and grandchildren. Nothing pleased him more than spending time with them and passing on stories about his life. He is survived by daughters Susan Branson, Kathryn Schwartz and Lisa Forrest, and by grandchildren Kaitlin Heller, Alec Schwartz, Mariassa Schwartz, Lauren Schwartz, Alexander Forrest and Jessica Forrest.

In lieu of flowers, please send donations in George and Jeanne Branson's names to the Moorestown Visiting Nurse Association's Hospice Care.

Moorestown Visiting Nurse Association 300 Harper Drive Moorestown, NJ 08057 <https://www.moorestownvna.org/>

Cemetery Details

Brigadier General William C. Doyle veterans Memorial Cemetery

350 Providence Line Rd
Wrightstown, NJ 08562
<http://www.state.nj.us/military/veterans/doyle.html>

Tribute Wall

“ George W Branson

October 09, 2023 at 03:30 AM

“ George W Branson

November 08, 2022 at 08:26 PM

“ So very sorry to read about Cousin George's death - we lost contact over the past few years and didn't know of Jean's passing - Sympathy to his daughters - he always kept me updated with Denelsbeck history - with his passing there are only two first cousin Denelsbecks remaining - my brother Tom and me. He was a good man - may he rest in peace up there with all the rest of the family - his mom was the oldest in the family and my dad, Al, the youngest. Peace to all his children and grandchildren - you have beautiful memories. with love, Cousin Carol Denelsbeck Pierzchala

Carol Pierzchala - October 17, 2021 at 06:21 PM

SL

“ George has been our neighbor and buddy for many many many years! We have shared many days and times out back bird watching. We shared fun times at Phillies games live and on TV. He was the “Supervisor” of our pond building project along with garden digging, planting and harvesting. We planted and watched an array of flowers and vegetables grow and be harvested. We had a “pet” pigeon “Brownie” and too many Alvin the chipmunks to count. We will miss him greatly and life in the backyard won’t be the same but we know he will be watching down on the progress from heaven! Thanks for all your words of wisdom and encouragement George!
Sally and Rick Lister

---

sally Lumley - October 16, 2021 at 04:19 PM

AJ

“ I will miss George. He was always a peaceful friend who loved telling stories of growing up in Moorestown and his lifelong friends. Rest In Peace, George. You will be missed.

---

Andrea St. John - October 13, 2021 at 12:21 PM