

Gladys W Richardson

July 30, 1905 - May 16, 2015

Gladys Richardson (nee Woolley) died peacefully on May 16, 2015 at the Evergreens in Moorestown, NJ, after an amazing life at 109 years old.

Gladys was born on July 30, 1905 to Thomas and Laura Woolley at their home in Trenton, NJ. Gladys was predeceased by husband Charles Richardson, brothers Thomas Woolley and Norman Woolley as well as sisters Millicent Baddeley, Alice Yago and Laura Bentley. She was also predeceased by her nephew Jack Yago whom she loved like her own son.

Gladys is survived by her niece Barbara Yago and her great nephews David Yago and Douglas Yago and treasured friends Deborah Earl and Lynn Belsh. She is survived by additional relatives outside the Philadelphia area.

Gladys was a longtime resident of Trenton where she worshipped and served at Christ Episcopal Church. She worked as a bookkeeper at several car dealerships in the Princeton area. Gladys travelled a number of times to Bermuda and Europe with her siblings and was always up for an adventure. She was an avid golfer and Phillies fan. Most of all, Gladys enjoyed laughter and friendship. She was always independent and witty. Many thanks go to those at the Evergreens who cared for her as her family.

“ It was 1974 when I met Aunt Gladys she had just retired and came to get her hair done at the beauty shop I was working at. She didn't drive it was in walking distance. We became friends right away she was so easy to like. She was kind and caring. As time went on I decided to leave that salon but she wanted to follow me. Since she didn't drive that would be hard to do. So I offered to go to her apartment to do her hair until we could figure out what we were doing. She was such a wonderful woman as the weeks went by I just continued doing her hair at her house. We got along well and she was like the grandmother I never had. The friendship grew and soon I was taking her to the Doctor, food shopping, library, she loved to read. I started to clean her house, wash her clothes, along with doing her hair and pedicures, manicures. Then the children came and I still continued this with my children enjoying her influence and charm. She also enjoyed the kids we would go out to eat often and the children look forward to it. She knew my family and she was at our many family gatherings with my In-laws, parents, husband, brothers and sisters. I had the privilege to be in the company of her family, Alice, Laura and Barbara and family. It was about 1989 when I was expecting my 3rd child that she moved down to the Evergreens. While at the Evergreens We all continued to visit her many times still doing her hair until she got use to getting it done at the Evergreens. Our visits continued through the years spring, summer, fall, winter. We spent many wonderful hours together and we talked about so many things. She was never boring always alert and never lost for words. When she arrived at the Evergreens she referred to the people there as old she was so funny. Walking with her she would turn and ask me if she was walking to fast for me. Our last Photo of her with us was when she was 106. She was a blessing to me and my family our photos highlight our visits. She will be missed by me and my family. So blessed to have the privilege to share a segment of her life with her. I know she loved her family she always talked so fondly of them to me. She was a very special lady and very much loved by many. Gladys I thank you for the memories, friendship, laughs, lunches, and stories but mostly I thank you for your love to me and my family.

Until we see you in heaven. Love Carmela Commisky and Family

I have heard a lot of great things about her, but never got the pleasure of meeting her. She sounds like a really neat lady. So sorry for your loss. God bless this brand new Angel and God bless all of you.
