“ I remember when Mr. Montague came to my parents' house to pick up Kevin after my Bar Mitzvah. My dad invited him in for a drink and the two spoke for a long time. During that conversation my dad broke out laughing. After Mr. Montague and Kevin left, my dad told me what made him laugh so hard. My dad said, Mr Montague was trying to figure out how to tell Kevin, that with all the Bar Mitzvahs he was going to that when he turned 13 he wasn't going to have one. That's one of my favorite memories of Mr. Montague. He will surely be missed.
