“ At WVU, over 30 years ago, Dave Lewis and I believed our comedic skills had been mastered: flawless timing; a wide range of stories; Dave a deadpan virtuoso. But after we met each other's father, we realized we were mere amateurs. Often with a look suggesting a serious matter, Mr. Lewis would spin a yarn or sing a song (once, his "singing" almost got us tossed out of a Morgantown bar!) or offer a joke. The bar was raised, and like star-struck understudies, Dave and I paid attention to every detail. And we laughed the entire time.

Mr. Lewis was a funny, warm, honest, loving, compassionate, first-rate gentleman. Even while being ribbed about one thing or another, I always felt welcome and "at home" when visiting his home. And over the past 33 years of getting to know Mr. Lewis (and Mrs. Lewis, before she died), now, as an adult and father myself, I fully understand why their son--after meeting Dave early in our freshman year--is among my best and life-long friends.

Life is one continuous lesson. Having excellent teachers and role models is critical. (Dave and I both married Bucknell grads, so we paid attention when our dads taught us about choosing a quality spouse!) In that, I am blessed to have gotten to know--and to continue to be part of--the Lewis family. Mr. Lewis loved to laugh and to make people laugh; more importantly, to make people feel welcome and at ease. When around him, I cannot recall a moment that he wasn't smiling. I respectfully suggest here that we all honor his memory by making every effort to smile as often as he did, and to also give those around us a reason to smile.

“ For all the family and friends who loved Harry Douglas Lewis, peace. Heaven is enlarged and we are diminished. I cherished every moment of time spent with this kind and charitable man. He taught us all the value of life, love, friendship, family, piety and pleasantly. I am crushed that I am not be there to see him off in the way that we often gently laughed about. While I cannot be there in body, my soul and heart can feel the weight of his spirit and love, which is not a burden but an uplifting and enlightening grace. Doug will be with all my family...always. His warmth and easy laughter will brighten our days. We will miss him. We will grieve his loss but rejoice for having known him.

Lovingly, Brendan, Meg, Ryan, Colin, Darby, and Dillon O'Connor

“ I read the obituary about the loss of your loved one and I extend my sincere condolences. Death is truly an enemy but there is comfort in the Bible that “God will actually swallow up death forever and certainly wipe the tears from all faces.” Isaiah 25:8 Hold onto the beautiful memories of Harry and continue to have the love and support from family and friends.

“ DOUG WAS NOT ONLY A SUPER PERSONALITY, HE ENJOYED STIRRING THE POT JUST TO SEE THE REACTION OF THE PEOPLE INVOLVED. BY WATCHING HIM, HE TAUGHT ME HOW TO APPRECIATE EVERYONE AND EACH PERSONALITY I CAME IN CONTACT WITH. HE WAS QUICK TO LAUGH AND SMILE. WE WERE BOTH MEMBERS OF MEDFORD LODGE 178 F& AM, AND I WAS ALWAYS TICKLED PINK WHEN HE SHOWED UP MEETING NIGHT. AS I TYPE MY THOUGHTS OF HIM, AND LOOKING AT HIS PHOTO, I SAY TO MY SELF, YEP, THAT'S HIM.....SMILING, LOOKING AT ME, AND THINKING WHAT HE WOULD DO NEXT. I WILL MISS HIM, I WILL; WE ALL WILL. I WAS A VERY PRIVILAGED MAN TO KNOW HIM.....'MAN OF THE YEAR'!! ! GOD BLESS HIS FAMILY, AND DOUG AS HE ENTERS INTO GODS CARE. WITH GREAT LOSS, HOWARD BLACK, 2ND

“ I have such fond memories of Doug. As a little girl I was classmates with Suzanne and we'd play Barbies at their home. I used to think it was so cool that they lived upstairs from his office on the second floor on Main Street. Even as a little girl Mr. Lewis would make time to make us laugh!

Lucky me, I also had the good fortune to cross paths with him again as an adult. He was not only instrumental in helping me land the job at the YMCA back when they were building a new facility, but he always played a key role on my committees. We had some great committee meetings, --- always started with a joke and ended with a prayer. Most importantly we enjoyed the camaraderie of helping the YMCA do good things in our community.

My sympathies to Suzanne and David. You know your dad will be missed by many. You know he did so many wonderful things for Burlington county and will be part of Moorestown's unique history. May God find a big chair in heaven for this wonderful man.

“ Lewis Family,

You are all in my thoughts and prayers! Your dad was a wonderful person and a great friend to my parents. He took such good care of us during both of my parents deaths. He even came back to take care of my mom when he was basically retired. He always went beyond what he needed to do and was so empathetic in dealing with all of us. Even though my parents moved out of town he promised them that he would take good care of them and he did. I remember your dad and my dad enjoying time together in their service clubs and your dad presenting my dad with the Man of the Year award and then my dad being there when your dad received the award. I hope that in time you will be comforted by lots of wonderful memories.
