“ Mitch was the greatest listener I will ever know. He was a loving husband and father, a gentle giant of a man, a perfect example of consideration and kindness, but most fortunate for me, we were best friends. Mitch was a leader, adventurer, mountain climber, pirate Captn and unbelievable musician. He was the glue that bonded all the antics of Erkin Rock. Versatile guitarist playing both rock and electronic/ ambient music. Diehard Eagles fan and industrial camper. He found “ the boat” that lead to more fun than should be allowed. He never grew old he was always a kid at heart. I will miss him more than any words can explain.

“ When the Eagles play memories of watching games with Captain Mitchell will always bring a smile to our faces. Whether on the island or Warrens house or in our yard around the fire pit or deck. Jeff was a good, good man. One of his birthday wishes came true when they finally won the super bowl. Rest in peace my friend. To Wanda and the entire Mitchell family our deepest condolences.

“ The Captains influence on all his pirate crew will live on in our hearts forever . His grace and calm demeanor during all our bafoonery and shenanigans is a true testament to why he was the captain . His steady calculated ways and willingness to indulge our silliness stayed the course . Jeff I am so grateful for all our adventures conversations and camaraderie . Your big body and even bigger heart will be missed and cherished . You helped form who I am . Fair seas and tail winds Captain . Wanda , I can't comprehend your loss but will always be grateful for your willingness to share Jeff with us ! Cling to the memories and find peace in the fact that Jeff's influence will live on in the hearts and lives of those fortunate enough to have been part of his crew . I will miss you dearly , rip Captain .

Jeff was my first guitar teacher when I picked it up again at age 16. He taught me many songs. Nights in White Satin at the top of the list. Very patient, even guy. It's been decades because I live so far away now. Very sorry to hear of your untimely passing, my friend.

Thank you Lunker, that was beautifully written. I can only add that no matter what was going on, there was always a feeling of safety, because Captain Mitchell was in charge. I very proud to have been a crew member.

It's been over two months since my brother left this earth. I wanted to thank those who have shared their thoughts, feelings and memories above. It warms my heart to read what you all have written. I have so many thoughts, feelings and memories that I am not even going to try to put them into words at this time. Let me just say, I could not have picked out a better brother had that opportunity ever been possible.
