

Jesse S. Hayes

July 10, 1978 - September 13, 2024

Jesse S. Hayes, 46, of Mount Laurel, NJ, passed away on September 11, 2024. Jesse was born July 10, 1978 and raised in Riverton, New Jersey. He was not only known for being helpful and caring, which endeared him to many throughout his life, but also his quick wit, love of designer wear and his skills on the grill.

Jesse attended Moorestown Friends High School, where he formed many friendships and was appreciated for his supportive and humorous nature. His presence brought light and laughter to those around him, making every gathering a bit brighter.

He is survived by his loving mother, Barbara L. Hayes; sisters, Laura Hayes, Jill Hayes, and sister-in-laws Lisa Routhenstein, Barbara A. Hayes; as well as his nieces, Michelle and Barbara W. Hayes, and nephews, Christopher and Gabriel LoMonico. Jesse was preceded in death by his father, Michael F. Hayes.

In lieu of flowers please make a charitable contribution in Jesse's memory to Camden FireWorks for the arts at camdenfireworks.org.

In accordance with his family's wishes, no public services will be held. The family will mourn privately. Jesse's memory and legacy will live on in the hearts of his family and friends

“ I am so sad to hear this news. We were neighbors for a brief period of time, but Jesse was so welcoming, caring, and friendly. There was always nice conversations while walking our dogs in the back lawn. I am so sorry to the family, and Rino and I send our sincerest condolences. May he rest in peace.

“ My sincerest condolences to the family. I'm a transplant to SJ from North Jersey when I met Jesse through our brotherhood. He became family. His sarcasm, quick wit, barefooted, kind, loving, complicated personality, gave him the magnetic personality that attracted others to him. His journey faced many challenges and from my lens- he fought the good fight . You will be missed my friend. Your memory will always be in the hearts of those whose lives you have touched . Rest Easy my friend Jesse Hayes.
