Jesse worked with me for a time at Lenovo, and he was a great person. I was fortunate to meet him. In life, we never know what will happen, but we can always cherish the friends and family along the way. He was a good friend to me, and appreciated my support. I appreciated him telling everyone how great my reports were, in front of everyone on a large call, he definitely wasn't shy ;) He was really nice, and had a great smile. He loved his family very much, and spoke of them often. He liked NC too while he was here at Lenovo. i was glad he could see NC and be here with us for a bit. God is good. RIP Jesse. You will be missed.

“ *My heartfelt sympathy for the family and friends.
Lost of a loved one in death and coping with the big adjustment that such a great loss brings is never easy. Jehovah God will be our secure refuge knowing that He felt what we feel. The resurrection hope found in the Bible helps you to gain an inner calm and strength.-John 5:28,29.*

“ I was saddened to hear of Jess's passing. I too worked with Jess over several years at OKI, and have great memories . He was a great mentor, and loved sharing his passion of sales and those of us who worked for him were lucky to have his great leadership. I remember laughing at his work stories, but more than that his stories of his wife Alli and their little girls. I had the opportunity to spend time with Jess and Alli at an OKi President's Club in Nevis, and look back with a smile on some fun times shared. As mentioned by other, he always had a smile, he had a way of making sure you knew he had your back, and I would consider him one of the most genuine people I've worked with and for.
Love and prayers to Alli , daughters and the entire family.

“ As I was driving into work this morning, I am still in shock with this news. Jess was the best boss I have ever had. He was kind, energetic, motivating, generous and a great mentor. He never met a stranger. Thank you for all you have done for me. Thank you for giving me an opportunity with a new company. Our team loved you and you made us feel like family. I pray for Ali and their beautiful girls, Makenzie, Campbell, and Kayden. He loved his girls so much. He always spoke of them with such pride and admiration. I am so glad I got to visit with you the last time I was in NJ. You will be dearly missed JT!

Rest in peace...

“ Jesse and I were good friends in high school at Kadena. Although we lost touch (as many of us military sons and daughters do) nothing will replace the fond memories of our childhood together. My thoughts and prayers to his wife and family...

“ I only had the pleasure of meeting Jesse a few times through Lexmark. I came to Chicago on 2 occasions to work with Scott Dunsire and got to know Jesse a little. He was always smiling and seemed genuinely happy. Sorry to hear of his passing. Prayers to his family and many friends.

“ Jesse was a delight. We lived in Okinawa at the same time '87-'89. I have so many memories of Jesse from then and most of them make me laugh. First, I must tell you that he edited all my English work in junior and senior year of high school so...forgive my mistakes, my editor is gone. One of my favorite and one of my funniest memories of Jesse was in his car. It wasn't a special day, no party or particular destination. He opened my door and ushered me in, as he ALWAYS did, and closed it. He got in, turned on the car, looked at me...locked eyes, leaned forward reaching his hand to turn on the radio and started singing as he pretended to turn it on, in the BEST EVER Elmer Fudd? Bugs Bunny? 'I tern on da waadio na na na na...'. He sang the entirety of the Pointer Sisters 'Fire' like that. Deadpan. I was shocked, I laughed, I ROARED until I cried and my stomach hurt. I used to ask (beg) him to do it again. He could never be swayed...the moment wasn't right. He'd just had a wild hair and I was lucky enough to get the show.

Ali, Jack...I cannot express how sorry I am that his light is gone from your lives. '...you are weeping for that which has been your delight.' I am thinking of you everyday and wishing you all the strength to endure the devastation of his loss.

Love,
Amy

“ I share many of the same memories of Jesse that our classmates share. The memory for which I admire him the most is his always-present infectious smile. A glance at Jesse could make unbearable Okinawa days bearable. Today I mourn. Tomorrow I smile again in Jesse's honor.

“ To Jess' Family,

I was so saddened to hear of his passing. I worked with Jess as his admin at OkiData for several years and he was great to work with. I have many wonderful memories of Jess but will always thank him for introducing me to the "Incredible Roll" from a favorite Sushi restaurant. I am so sorry for your loss. His great smile will be missed.
