“ My Aunt Joan had the best laugh and smile! She loved music and requested to listen to anything by The Beach Boys and The Beatles. She was such a talented artist. I remember looking at her paintings at my Grandparents house in awe! I'll always remember the time we spent together on the swings in my backyard growing up, the trips to Avalon NJ beaches, spending the night in her apartment and her bright blue car that she drove! She was so patient letting Lisa and I put make up on her and braid her long beautiful hair. Joan could be stubborn, but she was always silly, light-hearted and could laugh at herself. She was such a loving person and I will miss her dearly!!!!

“ What a loss. Despite all of the adversity that she faced, Joan would always light up around her family. She showed tremendous love and compassion to those of us that she welcomed in to her inner circle and her perseverance and strength will inspire and motivate me well in to the future.

I spent many holidays with my cousin Joan. She loved to laugh and to create dishes of food to share with her family. She had a big smile and beautiful dark hair that she complained about as all teenagers do. She loved being with family and we loved being with her. I think of her every year on February 2 as I know she thought of me on my birthday.
