“ Our sincere sympathy to Lillian and family. We have been next door neighbors for about 20 years. We lucked out having them for neighbors. John will be sincerely missed especially our little talks when we would cross paths. Our loss is heaven's gain. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of the family. God bless you all.

“ Susan and I met when we were four and I instantly had a second family. And at the head of that wonderful family was Mr. Quaranta. He was a gentle and loving father figure throughout my entire childhood. He always had kindness in his eyes (even when we were getting in trouble). He always treated me like part of the Quaranta clan and I will never forget the wonderful memories. My childhood was enriched beyond words by his presence. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. You will be greatly missed Mr. Quaranta.

John Q, special kind of friend. Sal, My brother Mike, and me would play cards every month, alternating houses.. it was more like a laugh fest. Lil, Mary and I were saddened to hear of Johnny's passing. He is home now with the Lord. We all loved Johnny and regardless of where we were he never changed. Our thoughts and prayers for peace are for you and your family. The Lord loves you all and so do we. God Bless, Phil & Mary G

John Quaranta was our son's father-in-law. He was a kind, gentle man who had a smile and a hug for everyone. Family gatherings will not be the same now; missing will be his friendly greeting and interest in seeing us. His death has saddened us, for we loved him very much. Our sympathy is with his family.

John and I met (as well as Lillian and Beverly) through the great early friendship of our four year old daughters in Haddon Heights, New Jersey. Stacy and Susan spent countless hours at both of our homes and it was always a joy to see them together.

I had many a "Sidewalk Chat" with John while I was dropping off or picking up Stacy at his house, and sometimes at ours. He was one of the nicest men I ever met, and I would smile as soon as I saw him. He had that effect on people.

We talked about many things....our young families, both being in the life insurance business, the crazy things in the news, as well as both of us having the good fortune of growing up Italian!

His signature comment with me (and I assume others) at the end of our conversations was always..."eh what are you gonna do"? Seems like a small thing but I remember it so well and with great fondness. He was a good man, with good traditions, strong family values and a very pleasant temperament.

He was in a word a "Gentleman" and indeed a very gentle man. Though I have not seen John in many years, just knowing that he is no longer with us makes the world seem a much sadder. But his memory and legacy will last forever, and with that thought I leave Lillian, Marianne, Susan, Vincent and Renee with the knowledge that our thoughts and our prayers are with you all.
