

Joseph W.M. Aman

October 1, 2018

Aman, Joseph W. M., 83, known as Joe, of Mount Laurel, NJ on October 1, 2018. Born in Trinidad, W.I. Beloved husband of Carol A. Aman (nee Moore) and beloved father of Mercedes M. Job. Brother of Edmund Aman, Harold Aman and the late Errol Aman. Son of Charley Aman and Millicent St. Laurent Aman, both deceased and sister-in-law, Joan Rose.

From childhood, Joe's hobbies were sports. He had played soccer in his younger days; but his great love was cricket. He was an avid player of the sport for most of his life, as well as a fan. He also refereed cricket games and was president of the Prior Cricket Club of Philadelphia, PA at the time of his demise. He loved traveling with his wife and child, always for the sport of cricket. Joe was a member of Grace Bible Church who loved The Lord and his church family. He was a devoted husband and father, a very kind and helpful man. He was honorably discharged from the United States Air Force and was retired from PFPC (PNC Corp.). He left many friends everywhere he went. He is missed very much.
