“ I am thinking of all of you at this difficult time. I am so fond of Emily, my brother Dean's girlfriend. While I never got a chance to meet Karen, I can only imagine what an amazingly classy woman she was, as Emily is so classy, smart and genuine. I know Karen's memory and lessons she gave to you bring you comfort at this difficult time. Love, Sue Coles

“ We were so sorry to hear this sad news about our cousin. Karen was a kind soul who fought a courageous battle. The last time we saw Karen was at our own brother's funeral-two souls taken too early. May she rest in the comfort of heaven and may your memories of her bring you peace.

Our deepest sympathy to the Terpak and Nazarko families.

“ Karen was an exceptionally smart and dedicated student and economist. I was fortunate to be Karen's roommate at Goucher College. We had lots of adventures and fun together. She brought me home to meet her parents one college break and I met my future husband through Karen.

May Karen's family find peace and solace. My husband and I send our heartfelt sympathy and condolences to John, her daughters, brother Peter and mother, Liz.

“ We were so sorry to hear this sad news, and regret that we will not be able to attend her memorial service - as we are in Florida for the winter. Karen was a wonderful friend, a talented singer/musician and was always ready to share a smile and a laugh. She loved her personal family and her church family deeply. “God be with you til we meet again”

“ Karen was so remarkable in that the rare times I saw her, and the many times my daughter shared with her, there was never a pity party... she always upbeat and positive around me and never spoke of her situation. Rather, spoke so proudly and lovingly about her two daughters and how much she loved and admired them. Her house was a home that reflected her creative, beautiful energy.
