“ I have many cherished memories from childhood of my aunt Kathleen. We moved to Florida when I was 14, so I didn't get to see her much after that, but I always remember her being very kind, caring and just fun to be around. I remember her being the popcorn maker of the family. Whenever I spent the night at my grandparents she would make the best popcorn. 🤗 She would come to our house and babysit my sister, brother, and me sometimes, and it was always a fun time to be had by all. Fun and games, movies and of course popcorn. 😊 Love & miss you very much Kathleen. I look forward to seeing you again one day. 💖💖💖

“ One highlight memory of Kate was getting to see just how special her relationship was with animals. It was through her that I met Marty, the squirrel. I watched her talk to him and he'd walk right up so she could hand him peanuts. I was pretty shocked. It was the type of thing I had only seen on YouTube. She's Moorestown's little Snow White.

Thank you for sharing that-- Marty used to play leapfrog with Oreo, until we made him an entirely indoor cat. They were besties.

Her love of squirrels and wildlife were a lifelong love. She's saved many a critter- and passed that ability on. I'll never forget her tales of Poppadopolous (the squirrel she saved as a young girl) and how beautiful this real life version of snow white was in all aspects of life.

From tweezing baby praying mantis out of a spider web, to letting me use her car to transport an injured goose across town lines, my mom's truly always had the wings of an angel.

Thank you for being a light in her life.
