“ It is with a heavy heart that I write this. God picks his finest flowers, and He picked a great one in Keith. I remember all the laughter we had, and boy did we have a lot. I especially remember all the times Keith used to let me do whatever I wanted to his hair when I was going to school for cosmetology. What a great sport he was! I especially have fond memories of when we were younger, swimming in our parents pool, and hanging out in the basement with my brother, Glenn, Tammy, Bob, Cindy, Charlie and the rest of the gang. These memories will stay for me forever, as much as my broken heart will. I take tremendous comfort knowing that he is with his mom, his dad and my brother and others who have passed before us. The memories of the laughter you have given me, far out way the tears I'm crying for you now. So thank you for that, Bird Man, my friend who will remain in my heart now, as you did then. Love and prayers are always with you, as well as your family and all your friends. I am especially happy that you enjoyed the videos, that Tammy showed you, of my horses and dogs running free. Now it's time for you to run free, my friend in heaven. Until we meet again, always know how much you were loved and always will be. ❤️🙏🌈 Until we meet again.....
Love you, miss you Carol and Jeff Bujnowski

“ When I first met Keith as his Nurse at Allaire he had come to us from his group home after a decline in his health. Keith hadn't spoken to me the first days and he seemed to me very weak, frail and I thought he would be dependent of all care while with us. Little did I know the fighter he was, after a couple days of him being there I remember going into his room where I found him in his wheelchair trying to attach his one foot rest to his wheelchair. I said what are you doing? I didn't know you could do that , and Keith repeated to me PT, PT (short for physical therapy) I helped Keith get his foot rest on and told him I would check with PT and left the room and went to call PT. Moments later Keith came wheeling him self on his own all the way down the hallway. I remember the other Staff as well as myself say we didn't know or think he could do that. We quickly realized after that what a determined guy he was. While with us Keith did overcome many challenges, and he stole many hearts such as mine.. Keith was so sweet always trying to help with his care, I remember the first time he gave me a hug , he brushed my behind, which I thought was an accident. I quickly found out that Keith though sweet and charming was also a little rascal. It was his game as he would pass me in the hallway while I was at my Medcart, He would reach to brush my behind and I would say nooo Keith he would give a snicker laugh and smile and would always listen he just liked to tease me. I will remember Keith for many other things then this and will always keep a place for him in my heart. I'm blessed to have known him.

“ Keith introduced me to some great people that I would of never known. He was always good for a laugh. Wish he had more time with his hobbies. He loved Peterbuilt trucks. It was Ford against my GM cars. Trains had him smiling. Kinda think Scott Thomas will be messing with him again. See ya on the other side. Tom
